FOREWORD

This publication reports the major discussions of the 35th National Public Policy Education Conference held September 16-19, 1985, at Kerrville, Texas. The 129 participants represented most states, the United States Department of Agriculture, and other public agencies.

The conference, planned by the National Public Policy Education Committee, is held to help those extension workers responsible for public affairs programs do a better job in policy education. This, in turn, should help citizens faced with solving local and national problems make more intelligent and responsible decisions.

Specific objectives were: (1) to provide timely and useful information on public issues; (2) to explore different approaches to conducting public policy educational programs; and (3) to share ideas and experiences in policy education.

The Farm Foundation, following its policy of close cooperation with the state extension services, financed the instructional staff and the transportation of one individual from each extension service. The Foundation also financed publication and distribution of these proceedings which are made available to state and county extension personnel, teachers, students, and others interested in increasing understanding of public policy issues.
