Thanks to FNS for waivers granted during COVID

- Thanks to the USDA for providing flexibilities to our school nutrition teams to ensure our children have access to school meals throughout the pandemic.
- To date, our state has implemented more than 70 waivers, and we know how much effort goes into each of those rules to make them a reality.
- As waivers sunset, we look forward to working with USDA toward extending and continuing this important work.

Farm to School Grant Program

- Support from California's First Partner Jennifer Siebel Newsom
- The 2020-21 State Budget allocated $1.5m to invest in the California Farm to School Network, and to facilitate a Farm to School Working Group
- $8.5m one-time allocation to pilot a farm to school incubator grant program
- $10m proposal to expand the farm to school incubator grant program

California Nutrition Incentive Program

- CNIP provides grants to organizations to distribute nutrition incentives at Certified Farmers' Markets and small businesses
- Benefits low-income shoppers as well as farmers and the local economy
- Incentives are available for shoppers using CalFresh (California's SNAP benefits), WIC and Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program benefits
- For every benefit dollar they spend, shoppers receive an additional dollar to be spent on California grown fresh fruits and vegetables
- In 2019, CNIP distributed more than $4.2 million in incentives and partner program costs
- 250+ sites – primarily Certified Farmers' Markets, and also mobile and neighborhood markets, and co-op grocery stores
- Pandemic: grantees implemented creative solutions such as prefilled boxes of produce

FOOD & AGRICULTURE

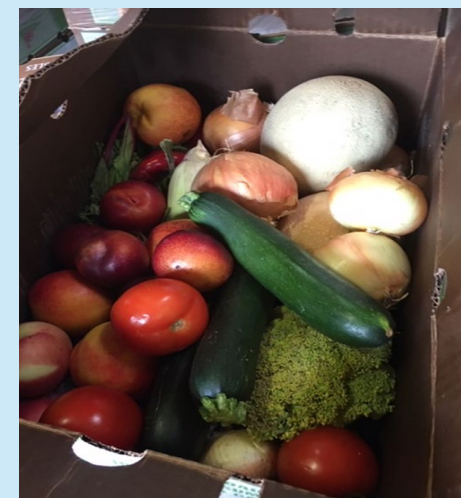

Healthy Stores Refrigeration Grants

- Pilot program funds energy-efficient refrigeration units in corner stores and small businesses in low-income/low-access areas to stock California-grown fresh produce, nuts and minimally processed foods
- $4.45m awarded to 57 grantees
- Units in ~215 corner stores and 13 trucks in more than 36 counties
- Grants also to cities, counties and nonprofits giving technical assistance
- Refrigerated trucks facilitate mobile markets and distribution solutions

Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program

- California's average federal allocation: $761,000
- COVID-19: CDFA partnered with the California Association of Food Banks to distribute produce boxes to low-income seniors
 - 20,242 produce boxes
 - 506,050 pounds of fresh fruits and vegetables
 - 20,000+ seniors served
 - 7 food banks
 - Approximately 27 farmers participated
 - First time our program has achieved 100 percent redemption of food funds

Great Plates Delivered Program
