California Department of Food and Agriculture

Agricultural Commissioners' Crop Reports

Santa Cruz County

1977-1981

California County Agricultural Commissioners' Reports from the California Department of Food and Agriculture. This collection consists of annual crop and livestock data from each of the 58 California Counties. The collection covers 1915-1981; digitization of the rest of the collection is forthcoming.

This digitization project was funded by the Giannini Foundation of Agricultural Economics, <http://giannini.ucop.edu/>.

The work was completed by the staff of the Giannini Foundation Library, University of California, Berkeley, <http://are.berkeley.edu/library/>. Please contact the Library to consult the originals.

Richard E. Rominger, Director
California Department of Food and Agriculture

and

The Honorable Board of Supervisors
County of Santa Cruz

Edward F. Borovatz, Chairperson
Marilyn D. Liddicoat Cecil Smith
Gary A. Patton Phil Baldwin

Dear Mr. Rominger and Board Members:

The 1977 value of agricultural production in Santa Cruz County was $95,300,000, an increase of 13 percent over last year despite the drought, reduced acreage and a depressed lettuce market. Apples are still the dominant crop, followed by strawberries and cut flowers.

Four crops--artichokes, blackberries, cauliflower and raspberries--were added to the list of million dollar crops, bringing the total to 13. Livestock, cattle and calves dropped below one million dollars because of a decrease in the number of animals as a result of the drought. Lettuce was off 2.4 million dollars because of over production and a depressed market.

Harvested acres, 23 percent of the county's acreage, are down 1,088 acres due mainly to the new tree crop acreage survey. Interplanted trees for the last five years were being added as new acreage. While the trend is to more smaller trees, per-acre production is being maintained.

Our thirty-eighth annual crop report of estimated acreage, production and gross value is submitted by this office in accordance with the provisions of Section 2279 of the California Food and Agricultural Code. It was compiled by Robert J. Hoff, Assistant Agricultural Commissioner, from information collected by staff members from many organizations and individuals.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN SIMMEN
Agricultural Commissioner

Richard E. Rominger, Director
California Department of Food and Agriculture

and

The Honorable Board of Supervisors
County of Santa Cruz

Dan Forbus, Chairperson
Marilyn D. Liddicoat Chris Matthews
Gary A. Patton Pat Liberty

Dear Mr. Rominger and Board Members:

Santa Cruz County's number one industry--agriculture--increased production in 1978 by $14,703,000 over the previous year, with a record total gross value of $109,956,000. Fourteen Crops which exceeded one million dollars are: apples, strawberries, lettuce, cut flowers, ornamental nursery stock, mushrooms, brussels sprouts, poultry, cauliflower, celery, artichokes, blackberries, raspberries, and cattle and calves. Apples are still the top crop, valued at $24,879,000.

Our thirty-ninth annual crop report of estimated acreage, production and gross value is submitted by this office in accordance with the provisions of Section 2279 of the California Food and Agricultural Code. It was compiled by Robert J. Hoff, Assistant Agricultural Commissioner, from information collected by staff members from many organizations and individuals.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN SIMMEN
Agricultural Commissioner

Dear Mr. Rominger and Board Members:

Santa Cruz County's number one industry--agriculture--increased production in 1979 by $3,767,000 over the previous year, with a record total gross value of $113,723,000. Thirteen Crops which exceeded one million dollars are: apples, strawberries, lettuce, cut flowers, ornamental nursery stock, mushrooms, brussels sprouts, poultry, cauliflower, celery, blackberries, raspberries, and cattle and calves. Apples are still the top crop, valued at $23,680,000.

Our fortieth annual crop report of estimated acreage, production and gross value is submitted by this office in accordance with the provisions of Section 2279 of the California Food and Agricultural Code. It was compiled by Robert J. Hoff, Assistant Agricultural Commissioner, from information collected by staff members from many organizations and individuals.

Respectfully submitted,

and

The Honorable Board of Supervisors
County of Santa Cruz

Gary A. Patton, Chairperson
Dan Forbus E. Wayne Moore
Robley Levy Joe Cucchiara

Dear Mr. Rominger and Board Members:

The gross value of agriculture, in Santa Cruz County, in 1980 was $118,152,000-- and increase of $4,429,000 over 1979. Agriculture remains the number one industry in the County.

Strawberries replaced apples as the leading cash crop. Thirteen crops which exceeded one million dollars are: apples, brussels sprouts, cauliflower, celery, cut flowers, green beans, lettuce, mushrooms, ornamental nursery stock, raspberries, strawberries, cattle and calves and poultry.

These values are gross returns to growers. A multiplier of 3 to 5 dollars for each dollar received, by the grower, more closely represents the impact agriculture has added to the County's economy.

Our fiftieth annual crop report of estimated acreage, production and gross value is submitted by this office in accordance with the provisions of Section 2279 of the California Food and Agricultural Code. It was compiled by Robert J. Hoff, Assistant Agricultural Commissioner, from information collected by staff members from many organizations and individuals.

Respectfully submitted,

John Simmen
Agricultural Commissioner

Dan Forbus E. Wayne Moore
Gary A. Patton Joe Cucchiara

Dear Mr. Rominger and Board Members:

In 1981 the gross value of agriculture in Santa Cruz County was $128,819,000, an increase of $10,667,000 over 1980. For the second year in a row, strawberries--at $25,602,000--remain the number one crop. Other million dollar crops are: cut flowers, lettuce, apples, mushrooms, ornamental nursery stock, brussel sprouts, cauliflower, poultry, cattle and calves, celery, green beans and raspberries.

Using an economic factor of 2.7 for each gross dollar of agriculture, $347,811,300 more closely represents the impact agriculture has on the County's economy.

The decline in the fruit and nut crops can be directly attributed to the Mediterranean Fruit Fly Quarantine placed on Santa Cruz County last year. Had the quarantine been in effect earlier, the loss would have been much greater.

This report of estimated acreage, production and gross value is submitted by this office in accordance with the provisions of Section 2279 of the California Food and Agricultural Code.

This crop report is dedicated to Robert J. Hoff, Assistant Agricultural Commissioner, who died on March 19, 1982. It was "Bob" who compiled the information included in this report. Bob worked for the Santa Cruz County Agricultural Commissioner's Office for 24 years and during that time made many, many friends. We will all miss him.

Respectfully submitted,
